

Y6 English

Non-Negotiables

- Our writing is always neat, joined and legible.
- We can write in the correct tense consistently.
- We make careful and precise word choices.
- We proof read our work, checking spellings and correcting them by looking words up in the dictionary.
- We proof read our work, checking we have included accurate punctuation.
- We use the correct punctuation layout for speech. We use this to convey character and advance action.
- We use commas consistently to mark phrases and clauses.
- We can spell most of the words off the year 5 and 6 spelling list.
- We use a range of techniques to open our sentences in order to make our writing cohesive.